Representing thousands of union carpenters and millwrights in 13 Local Unions who work and live in Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee & the Florida Panhandle

The Southeastern Carpenters Regional Council's policy is to support ANY candidate who supports Carpenter family issues. This policy has yielded positive results in supporting both Republicans and Democrats, continues today, and is reflective of our members.

These candidates support workers' rights, agree to address TAX FRAUD through MISCLASSIFICATION OF WORKERS, and support certified, registered apprenticeship language in future public capital projects. These candidates best represent Carpenter issues in the Thursday, August 1, 2024, Primary Election:
